Annex 1

Article 78. Whenever the Company convenes a general meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors, the Supervisory Committee and shareholder(s) alone or in aggregate holding 3% or more of the total number of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose motions to the Company.

Shareholder(s) alone or in aggregate holding 3% or more of the total number of the Company's shares shall have the right to propose an ex tempore motion ten days prior to the general meeting by furnishing the same to the convener in writing. The convener shall issue a supplemental notice of general meeting within two days after receiving the proposed motion to make public the contents of the ex tempore motion.

Save as provided above, the convener shall not amend motions stated in or add new motions to the notice of general meeting after the same has been issued and announced.

No voting or resolution shall be effected or adopted at the general meeting for motions that have not been stated in the notice of general meeting or that do not comply with Article 77 of the Articles of Association.

Article 141. The term of office of each director shall not be more than three years commencing on the date determined by resolution of the general meeting and ending on the expiration of the term of the then Board of Directors. The term of office for a director is renewable upon re-election.

The Chairman and Vice Chairmen shall be elected and removed by a simple majority vote of all members of the Board of Directors. The term of office of the Chairman and Vice Chairmen shall not be more than three years, which is renewable upon re-election.

The directors shall be elected or replaced by the general meeting, and may further be removed from their office prior to the conclusion of the term thereof by the general meeting. A written notice of the reason to propose a person for election as a director and a written notice by that person indicating his acceptance of such nomination shall be delivered to the Company within a period of not less than seven days commencing no earlier than the day immediately following the despatch of the notice of the meeting appointed for such election and ending no later than seven days before the date of such general meeting.

The election of the directors is based on a cumulative voting system. During the election, shareholders attending the general meeting may vote for a number of director's candidates by each share held by them, that is, the total number of votes cast by shareholders attending the general meeting shall be the number of shares held times the number of director's candidates. Each shareholder may cast all his votes to a single candidate or spread his votes among different candidates, provided that the cumulative votes cast shall not exceed the total number of votes held by that shareholder. The directors shall be elected according to the number of votes cast for them. The number of votes obtained by the director's candidates shall exceed half of the voting rights represented by the persons attending the general meeting.

A director whose term of office has not expired may be removed by way of an ordinary resolution, provided that a general meeting is conducted in accordance with the relevant laws, administrative regulations and related provisions stipulated in the Articles of Association (and without prejudice to any claim for damages under any contract).

The term of office of a director shall commence on the date determined by resolution of the general meeting and end on the expiration of the term of the then Board of Directors.

Upon election of directors, the Company shall promptly enter into engagement contracts with the elected directors in which details relating to the rights and obligations between the Company and the directors, the directors' term of office, liability of the directors for breaching the laws and regulations as well as the Articles of Association together with compensation arising out of an early termination of such engagement contracts by the Company shall be clearly specified pursuant to the laws and regulations as well as the Articles of Association.
